

CMS

CENTERS for MEDICARE & MEDICAID SERVICES

MITA Year in Review

Rick Friedman, CMS

Rita Vandivort-Warren, SAMHSA

Dave Walsh, eServices

Susan Ackley, Arizona

Mary-Kay McDaniel, Arizona

2008 MMIS Conference
Nashville, TN
September 16, 2008

CMS Activities

- State, industry, CMS MITA workgroups established
- MITA Governance structures put in place
- Working with SAMHA on BH-MITA
- “MITA Connection” -- published 9 monthly newsletters since last November on MITA-specific activities at CMS and in States
- Three-quarters of States working on or completed their MITA State Self-Assessments
- Held 2-day on-site MITA Training Sessions for States in collaboration with all 10 CMS RO's

MITA'S THREE

ARCHITECTURES: THREE WORKGROUPS

Business Arch - States

MITA NMEH Sub
Workgroup

MITA HL7
Project
Workgroup

Information Arch - States

Technical
Architecture
Committee

Technical Arch - Industry

MITA
Medicaid
Information
Technology
Architecture

MITA Governance: From Concept to Reality

- Business Architecture Review Board (BARB)
 - 10 State Members, CMS Chaired
 - Reviewed all 79 MITA Business Processes recommended for adoption by NMEH
 - Approved 77 and placed in MITA Repository for use (2 in final stages of clearance)

- Technical and Information Architecture Review Boards presently being constituted

Other Agencies Interested in Using MITA as a Guide/Template

MITA

- Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Admin. (SAMHSA)
- USDA--WIC and Food Stamps
- ACF--Child Welfare/Foster Care
- Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC)
- US Public Health Service - - HRSA
- AHRQ, ONC, HHS/OS

Other Organizations Expressing Major Interest in MTA This Year

- National Governors Association
- American Public Human Services Administration
- NASMD
- National Association of State CIOs
- ASTHO
- Harvard's Kennedy School of Government
- Yale's School of Management
- Auburn University/ AL
- Annie E. Casey Foundation
- Kaiser/Children's Network

MITA
Medicaid
Information
Technology
Architecture

Major Joint Project with SAMHSA

- BH-MITA Project
 - Faced with many of same challenges as Medicaid, SAMHSA is leveraging MITA approach and products for behavioral health agencies
 - Developed a number foundation documents
- BH-MITA will be an important bridge to state Medicaid Agencies

